

The Michigan Horse Trails Association (MHTA) is a 501c3 non-profit organization with a mission to promote, protect, and increase access to equestrian trails and camping opportunities in Michigan. You can help us achieve our goals by becoming a member and/or submitting a donation. With membership, you'll receive our communications which include email updates, an annual report and be among the first to know about horse trail-related opportunities like seminars and workshops, events, and funding opportunities.
